I understand that I am participating in a Real World Ready course.

I understand that I am expected to apply discipline-specific professional knowledge (SLO 1) in an authentic setting during the Fall 2016 semester in the reading component of EDUC 326. I also will plan and implement lessons in elementary classrooms at cooperating school sites. I also plan to:

- Use state standards in ELA to develop lesson objectives,
- Develop activities aligned to the standards and objectives,
- Assess student performance with regard to the standards, objectives, and activities in implemented lessons,
- Reflect on efficacy in teaching practice.

I understand that I will demonstrate effective communication in a professionally-authentic form. (SLO 2) I plan to provide videos of implementation of lessons planned and develop a literacy block teaching binder that includes:

- Lesson plans
- Teacher-made materials
- Assessment artifacts

As a student I will reflect on the work, identifying strengths and weaknesses of product and process, and deriving directions for future effort. (SLO 3) I also intend to articulate reflective practice in the form of:

- Reflections in Moodle after each field experience session.
- Self-evaluation using the department-approved rubric
- Self-evaluation using the college of Education Department of Teaching and Learning Professional Attributes and Dispositions

I will consider my professional behavior as a reflection of myself and have a commitment to quality work. (SLO 4) I plan to do this by completing:

- College of Education Department of Teaching and Learning Professional Attributes and Dispositions
- Log of attendance at the cooperating school site.
- Instructor evaluation using the department-approved rubric.
- Mentor evaluation using the department-approved rubric.
