

LOUIS Reciprocal Borrowing

The Library participates in reciprocal borrowing with private and public academic libraries in Louisiana. Through this agreement, Southeastern faculty, staff and students may check out materials from participating libraries by presenting a LOUIS borrowing card issued by Southeastern's Library and a Southeastern ID card.

To apply for a LOUIS borrowing card, please visit the circulation desk. To have a LOUIS borrowing card mailed to your home address, print out the application and fax to: 985-549-3995, email to: libcirc@selu.edu, or mail the completed form to:

All LOUIS borrowers must abide by the host library's circulation policies and procedures. Most libraries lend to faculty and graduate students only. Distance education students, including undergraduate students, are extended reciprocal borrowing privileges at most institutions.

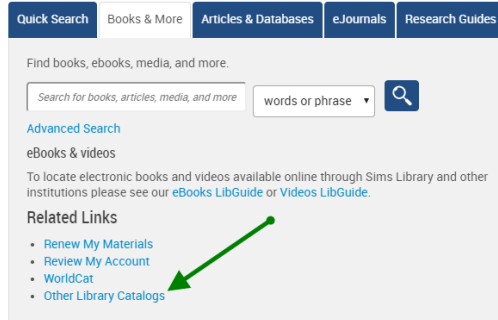

See inside this brochure for more information about participating LOUIS libraries.
